Far away South, far away South, lives a gal, "Wicked Red";

Miss Susie Brown;
She was some gal, so was her gal;
He was just, he was just;

Sure’s little Gold Dust; how he could step, kept up his rep full of pop;

I'm so far from home, and no
I just had a look, at some mat - ter where I roam, I'm not sat - is - fied; Mama, my rice to me, see her pictures that I took, Down in Car - o - line; Tell you on the square, that when picture and you see, I sat down and cried;

I was way down there, I was feel - ing fine;
Somehow though I try and forget, Those old scenes keep haunting me yet,
But I thought I'd wander away, How I long to be there to-day,

Everything is wrong and it seems that all day long, all I do is fret,
Old familiar scenes keep on haunting me in dreams that what makes me say,

Chorus

I've got those Carolina Blues.

Waiting for some news; As long some as can be, old men rise back on me;
through the southern pine,
moonlight softly shines;
when I'll lose, Those 'Car-ol-in-a Blues!
I've got those Blues!
