I'm the coon that's been blessed with wealth While a cop said: "move!" but; I did - n't budge, Next when my time comes to leave this pret - ty earth I can lot of coons a - round aint ev - en got good health, There's day I had to say "good morn - ing Judge," The look up and say I've had my mon - eys worth, I coons in town who are hun - gry as hogs While cop - per said: "Judge," that coon is a vag; Then I nev - er went to school that's a fact in - deed, And

I've got quail to feed to my dogs, So a - pulled a thou - sand dol - lars out of my mon - ey bag, I was num - bers is the on - ly thing that I read, But

I'm livin' easy.

bout hard luck folks I don't care Be - fined ten and costs day and the Judge looked strange When I eve - ry day a - bout half past three I cause I live the life of a mill - ion - aire.

 hand - ed him a fif - ty and said keep the change.
 hire a smart coon to read the news to me.

CHORUS.

I'm liv - in' ea - - sy eat - in' pork chops

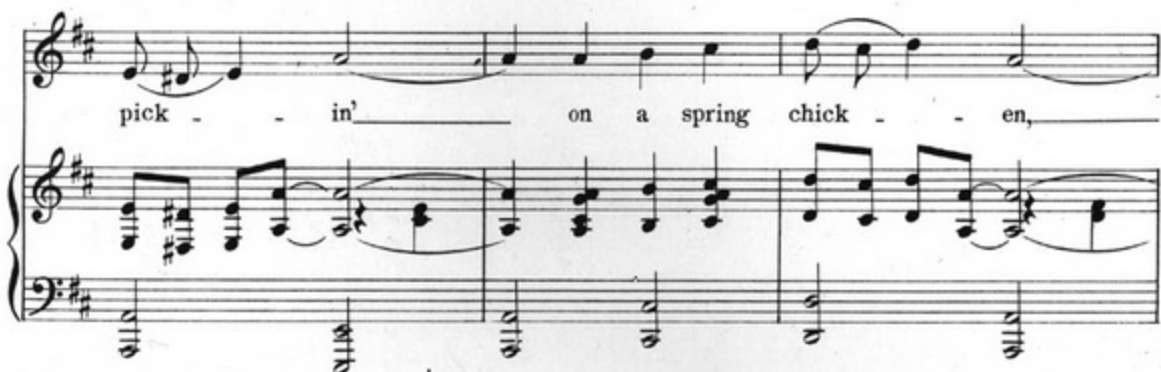

grea - - zy, al - ways got mon - - ey

I'm livin' easy

— to give my hon - - ey, I'm al - ways

pick - - in' on a spring chick - - en,

Yes, I am liv - in' ea - sy and cert'n - ly liv - in'

1. high. I'm liv - in' high. 2.

I'm livin' easy.
