

"LIME KILN CLUB."

Arr. by OTTO BONNELL.

Words and Music by BOGART and O'BRIEN.

Allegro.

Introduction.

VOICE.

- (Answer.)
- |  |           |          |                |
|--|-----------|----------|----------------|
| 1. Do you want to be a mem-ber of the Lime Kiln Club?          | Does you? | We does. | Do you         |
| 2. Do you b'lieve in keep-ing dis-tant from the bee that flys? | Does you? | We does. | Do you         |
| 3. Do you think mellon in hand is worth two on the vine?       | Does you? | We does. | When you put a |

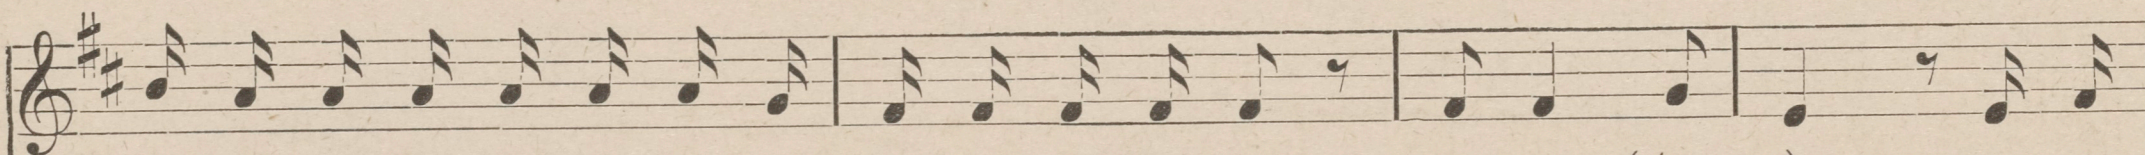

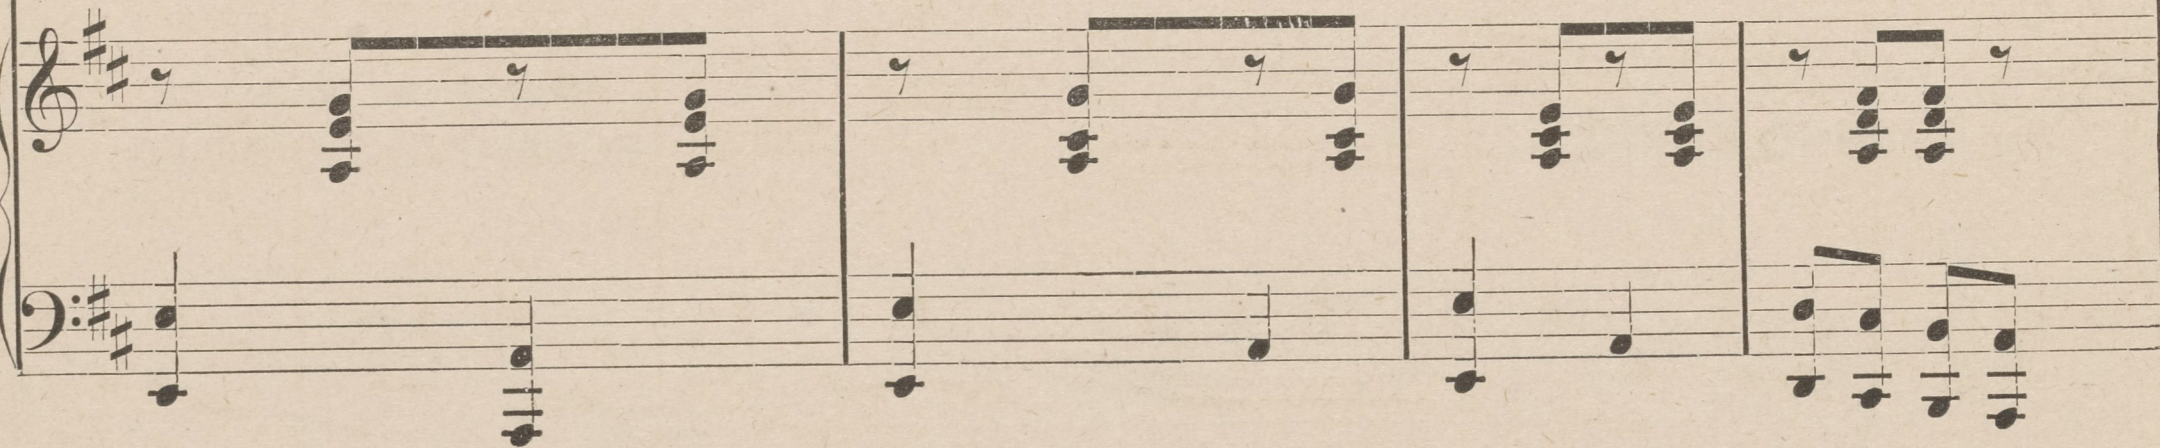

Copyright, 1893, by Will Rossiter. All rights reserved.

Send for "BABY'S LAST SLEEP," by the same authors.

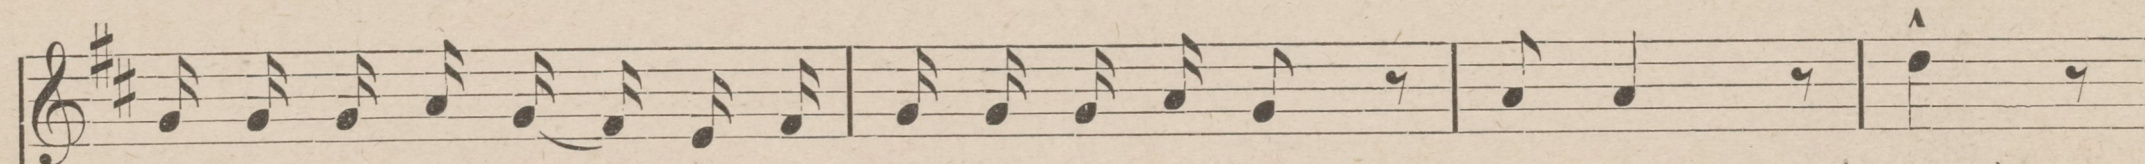

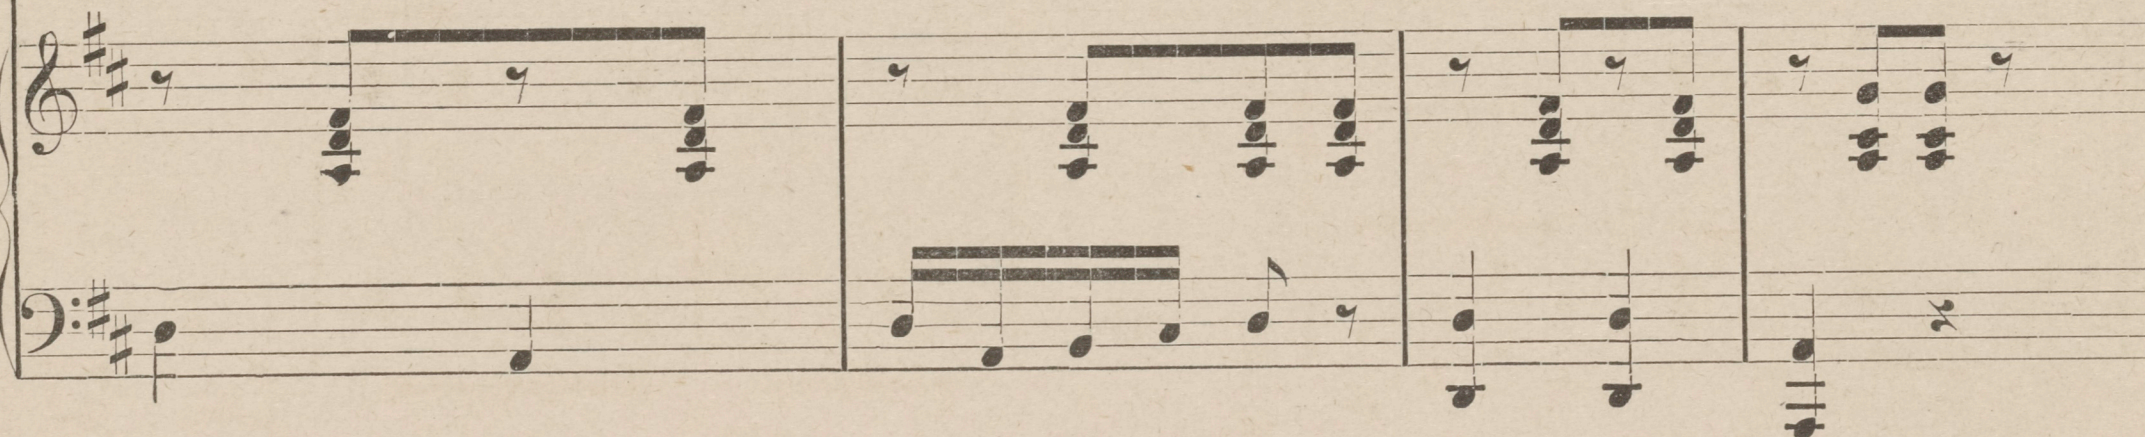

'gree to zam - i - na - tion of the rules dat we must lub?
 know the coon that wears no shoes, he nev - er makes a noise?
 nick - el in the Dea-con's hat, does you al - ways steal a dime?

(Answer.)
 Does you? We does. Do you
 Does you? We does. Do you
 Does you? We does. When you al - ways tote your ra - zor where it's hand - y when you stoop?

 b'lieve in being a stran - ger with the dog that's on his guard?
 see a jui - cy pos - som does you knock him on the head?

(Answer.)
 Does you? We does. Do you
 Does you? We does. Do you
 Does you? We does. Do you

al - ways shut you eyes when you pass a chick-en coop?
 b'lieve in re turn-ing chick-ens that come o - ver in your yard?
 b'lieve in buy - ing stove-wood when your neigh-bor am in bed?

(Answer.)
 Does you? No.
 Does you? No.
 Does you? No.

Send for "IN THE FLAT UP STAIRS."

CHORUS.

Then brud-ders and sis - ters, just hand me the white wings, And see me

p-f

fly - ing to the sky;..... I'll pay the toll for the Lime Kiln

Club, When we meet on that shore up high..... high.....

1 2

1 2

Repeat f.

Send for "IN THE FLAT UP STAIRS."