Detailed description: This system contains the first two lines of the chorus. The vocal line is in a soprano clef with a key signature of two flats and a common time signature. The piano accompaniment is in a grand staff (treble and bass clefs). The tempo is marked 'slower' and the dynamic is 'p-f' (piano-forte). The lyrics are: 'Jas-per John-son shame on you! You can't preach and rob me too!'.

You might fool me now and then, But you don't buy fowl at two A. M._

Detailed description: This system contains the third and fourth lines of the chorus. The vocal line continues with the lyrics: 'You might fool me now and then, But you don't buy fowl at two A. M._'. The piano accompaniment continues with chords and moving lines.

I know what I'm talk-ing a-bout And I want the peo-ple here to find you out;

Detailed description: This system contains the fifth and sixth lines of the chorus. The vocal line continues with the lyrics: 'I know what I'm talk-ing a-bout And I want the peo-ple here to find you out;'. The piano accompaniment continues.

So they can all stand up and shout: "Shame on you!" you!"

Detailed description: This system contains the seventh and eighth lines of the chorus. The vocal line continues with the lyrics: 'So they can all stand up and shout: "Shame on you!" you!"'. The piano accompaniment features a first ending (1.) and a second ending (2.). The dynamic is marked 'fz' (fortissimo). The system ends with a double bar line and repeat signs.

"The simplest things, if true, are always the greatest. Your song is simplicity itself and very true, and therefore Great. Many thanks for giving me the happiness of singing it."

Quoted from Miss Sallie Fisher's letter to the composer, Clare Kummer, (writer of "Egypt") after the instantaneous hit of "DEARIE," on the opening night of "Sergeant Brue."
