

E. A. Young

Mammy's Little Bright Eyed Cooon

A DAINTY SOUTHERN LULLABY

WORDS & MUSIC BY

KITTIE BINGHAM

...Sung with great success by MARK WEST..

PUBLISHED BY
MONDRICH MUSIC CO. BOSTON

A.H. GOETTING, GEN. SELLING AGT. SPRINGFIELD, MASS.

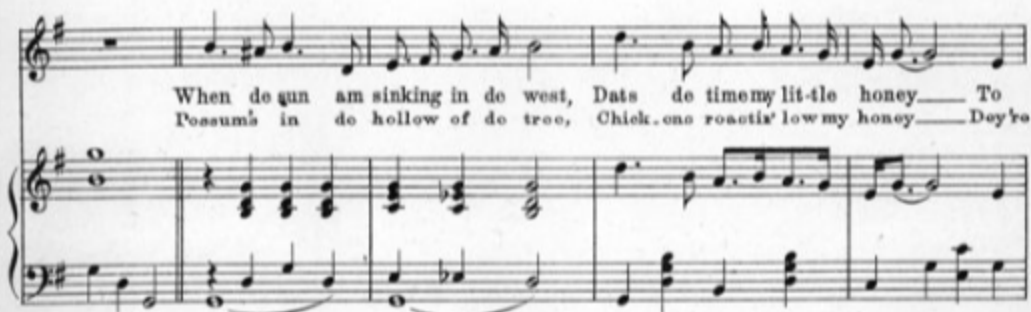

MAMMY'S LITTLE BRIGHT EYED COON.

Words and Music by KITTIE BINGHAM.

Andante.

VOICE.

PIANO.

When de gun am sinking in de west, Dats de timemy lit-tle honey— To Possum's in de hollow of de tree, Chick-ens roostin' low my honey— Dey're close yo' eyes an' snuggle down to rest, In yo' co-zy lit-tle bed.

all a-sleep as sound as dey can be, Dream-ing of my ba-by love.

Copyright 1900 by Mondrich Music Company.

Neb - ber mind de nois-y lit - tle Kids hang - ing round the cab - in son - ny — Just Mocking - bird am talk - ing to his mate out in yon der wood my son - ny — And dream a - way un - til de break of day And rest your cur - ly head.

night - in - gales am sing - ing in de vales, June bugs light up the grove.

In de wood - land trees love All de lit - tle birds am sound - ly sleep - ing, While de Tho' our skin am black love Still our hearts am jes as white as snow And when old balm - y south - ern breeze love, Fans my lit - tle coon

Ga - briel sound de trum - pet, Straight to heav'n will go

REFRAIN.

Close yo eyes my hon-ey ba-by, Yon-der shines de sil-bry moon

Slum-ber till to-morrow, You've not a care, a trouble or a sor-row, For yo' mam-my's nigh to rock the cradle and de sand man's coming soon. If he finds my ba-by playing, What yo' spouse yo'll hear him saying 'bout yo' mammy's lit-tle bright-eyed coon.