From ❄ to ❄ may be omitted, when used as song.

The first system of piano accompaniment consists of two staves. The right-hand staff features a melodic line with various ornaments and fingerings, including a ❄ symbol at the beginning. The left-hand staff provides a harmonic accompaniment with chords and moving bass lines. Dynamics include piano (p) and fortissimo (f).

The second system of piano accompaniment continues the piece. It features more complex rhythmic patterns and ornaments, including a ❄ symbol at the end of the right-hand staff. Dynamics range from piano (p) to fortissimo (f).

This system includes the first line of the vocal melody and its piano accompaniment. The lyrics are: "When I'se try - in' to make a pass, de bones dey seem to say..... If you". The piano accompaniment is in a simple, rhythmic style.

This system includes the second line of the vocal melody and its piano accompaniment. The lyrics are: "win dat race or get a place, I is yours ma Hon to - dav." The piano accompaniment continues with a steady accompaniment.

♩ CHORUS. Con spirito.

Come on chil-dren and take a spin you don't need sev-ens to win..... Just bend down low and let her go, Dat's de way for to win de dough.
