Till ready.

Tired of play - ing one night stands,
Jas - per sit - ting on a trunk

p p

Tired of hear - ing "Min - strel Bands;"
Said this show's an aw - ful bunk,

Jas - per Jones lay fast a - sleep in No one ev - er seems to have a bed; _____

sue; _____

Just as he be - gan to snore,
Asked the man - a - ger one day,

He heard knock - ing at the door, "Four o - clock get
If he let me have my pay, He said "I was up," some bod - y said, For - ty sev - en go - ing to touch you," Mex - i - co a - trunks be - low Ship them off to Mex - i - co,

long the track I can see us walk - ing back,

We play there to - night old laz - y bones,
We wont make the price of rail - road fare,

Jas - per slow - ly shook his head, "Must I leave this nice warm bed?"
 Mex - i - co with this old show, Mex - i - co, well I guess no;

Then he soft - ly sighed in mourn - ful tones.
 Ten - nes - see's a mil - lion miles from there.

CHORUS.

A little slower.

I don't want to go to Mex - i - co, I just want to get some

P-f A little slower.

good old dough, If I ev - er sees it in my hands

You can keep your one night stands and I'll just beat it to the near-est train, Bet your life you won't see me a-gain;

Did some bod - y men - tion Ten - nes - see? ___ 'Cause

1. home sweet home sounds good to me. 2. good to me.
