

SECOND SERIES
OLD DAN EMMIT'S
 ORIGINAL
BANJO MELODIES
 NEVER BEFORE PUBLISHED

SONGS IN

DAR HE GOES, DATS HIM!
 MY OLD DAD.
 CORNFIELD GREEN.
 SCHOOLMASTER ABROAD.
 DE OLD BANJO.
 BLUE TAIL FLY.
 ROCK SUSANDER.

THIS SERIES.

POMPY O'SMASH.
 LEDDER BREECHES.
 DE BANJO NIGGER.
 DE WILD GOOSE NATION.
 BACK ACTION SPRING.
 WALK JAW BONE.

MR. D.D. EMMIT.

AS SUNG BY HIM WITH UNPRECEDNTED SUCCESS,
 AT THE THEATRES & CONCERTS, BOTH IN EUROPE & AMERICA.

BOSTON, PUBLISHED AT KEITH'S MUSIC PUBLISHING HOUSE 67 & 69 COURT ST.
 Where may be found every description of Negro Songs.

Price 25 cts. nett

LITH. OF E. W. BOUVÉ BOSTON.

Entered according to act of congress in the year 1844 Chas. H. Keith in the clerks office of the district Court of Massachusetts.

CORN FIELD GREEN.

A Parody on 'A Summers Day'.

Musick by J Freidheim words by OLD DAN EMMIT.

KEITH'S Publishing House 67 & 69 Court St. Boston.

On a nigh in de fall ob de year, A hun gry coon would rove...; for a corn feild dat was near....., Green corn de coondid lub: De coon felt his ap pe...tite, Ha! ha! sez he, I mean to ea...t my fill dis night, All in dat eorn feild green.

Ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha

2

De night it was bery dark,
 De sun hab set too soon;
 He couldnt hear de bulldog bark,
 Good wedder sez de coon:
 He husk de corn upon de rail,
 His appetite was keen,
 On dis same night he wag'd his tail,
 All in dat cornfeild green.

3

Enough I've eat de coon he cried,
 Enough I've eat cried he;
 He kicked de bucket an died:
 All by a holler tree:
 De odder coons out ob spite,
 Dey nebbber would be seen;
 To eat dey're fill at night,
 All in dat cornfeild green.