I've been hav-ing trou-ble here of late.
Bought him-self a fid-dle way last week.

Cause my dad-dy done me wrong
It was done just for a stall

I am goin' to give him the gate—
And just to make his bluff com-plete—

And say be gone
But I don't fall

Just wait till he come I'm on to all the home to day— So these words to him I will say tricks he play— That is why these words I will say

Chorus

Dou-ble Cross - in' Pa-pa Don't Dou-ble Cross Me That's my mid - dle name Dou-ble Cross - in' Pa-pa Don't Dou-ble Cross Me Two can play the game can't you see You stayed out all night said you was fish-in Came home next morn-in' don't you see You said you was fiddlin' when you stayed out all night But I did not come and found me miss - in' If you drink whis - key then I'll drink gin If you home till broad day light We was spread - in' joy till half past eight So you flirt with oth - er girls I will flirt with - oth - er men 'Cause you said you was fish - in' when you see sweet pa - pa that I am fly and nev - er late Yes old Joe was a fid - dlin' un - til stayed out late — An - y fish will bite if you got good bait So half past four — He fid - dled so much un - til he broke his bow

I am go - in' fish - in' to night you see — Dou - ble Cross - in' Pa - pa Don't I am tak - in' les - sons in fiddlin' you see — Dou - ble Cross - in' Pa - pa Don't

He's A Mean Mean Man

(But He's So Good To Me)

By PERRY BRADFORD

Writer of "Double Cross-in' Papa"

Chorus

He's a mean mean man ——— But he's so good to me.

When he's a-round his ma he's as gent-le as can be

When he start to love I must con-fess that love of his is diff-erent yes from the rest Yes he ov-er did stand the test. He
