

"The First Song of the Negro Dandy"

S. Foster Damon
Series of Old Amer Songs #14

ca 1827 by J.W. Dixon
Wm Pennington & the comic singers

also see L.L. F. mem. p. 294 + 299 same title by Street + Currier

ca 1827
#6184
125-

Litho of Endicott

MY LONG-TAIL BLUE.

NEW YORK.

Published at ATWILLS MUSIC SALOON, 201 Broadway.

SOLD BY
FROT. MEIGNEN & CO
217 Chestnut Street
Phila.

LONG TAIL BLUE.

AS SUNG AT

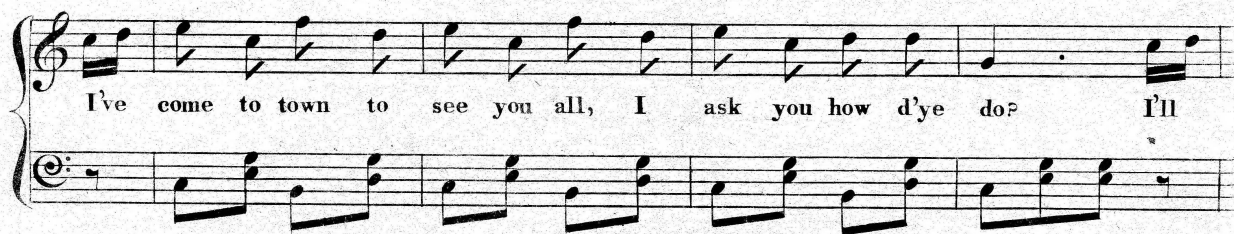

THE

T H E A T R E S.

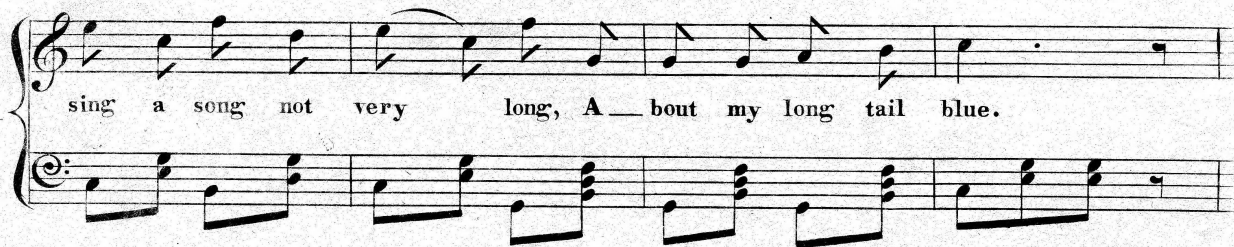

NEW YORK Published, at ATWILL'S, Music Saloon, 201 Broadway.

Piano introduction in 2/4 time, consisting of two staves. The right hand plays a melodic line with eighth and sixteenth notes, while the left hand provides a harmonic accompaniment with chords and single notes.

I've come to town to see you all, I ask you how d'ye do? I'll sing a song not very long, A—bout my long tail blue.

Oh! for the long tail blue. Oh! for the long tail blue. I'll sing a song not very long a — bout my long tail blue.

2

Some Niggers they have but one coat,
 But you see I've got two;
 I wears a jacket all the week,
 And Sunday my long tail blue. . . .
 O! for the long tail blue &c.

3

Jim Crow is courting a white gall,
 And yaller folks call her Sue;
 I guess she back'd a nigger out,
 And swung my long tail blue.
 O! for the long tail blue &c.

4

As I was going up Fulton Street,
 I hollerd arter Sue,
 The watchman came and took me up,
 And spoilte my long tail blue.
 O! for the long tail blue &c.

5

I took it to a Tailor's shop,
 To see what he could do;
 He took a needle and some thread,
 And mended my long tail blue.
 O! for the long tail blue &c.

6

If you want to win the Ladies hearts,
 I'll tell you what to do;
 Go to a tiptop Tailor's shop,
 And buy a long tail blue.
 O! for the long tail blue &c.

*different words on cover sheet
 see S. S. F. M. P. 295*