

HERMAN LET'S DANCE THAT BEAUTIFUL WALTZ

SUCCESSFULLY BY BERLIN & SNYDER INTRODUCED BY BELLE GOLD

*In all sincerity
Belle Gold*

IN WILLIAM A BRADY'S (LIMITED) PRODUCTION

TWO MEN AND A GIRL

TED SNYDER Co.
MUSIC PUBLISHERS
112 WEST 38 ST. NEW YORK

Herman Let's Dance That Beautiful Waltz.

Words by Irving Berlin.

Music by Ted Snyder.

Tempo di Valse.

Piano. mf

Till Ready.

Miss Len - a Krauss - mey - er with hair red as "I heard that a coon who heard Men - dels-sohn's fire — Last Sat - ur - day went to a ball, — — — — — There tune, kissed the first man she saw, if it's true; — — — — — That stood Mis - ter Her - man, a sweet lit - tle Ger - man, The ve - ry same feel - ing I feel on me steal - ing And best that was dressed in the hall. _____ The mus - ic played Her - man I'm look - ing at you. _____ So Close both your dan - ces like rag - time and lancers But no one would go on the eyes make be - lieve you aint wise, On - ly puck - er your lips in to floor _____ So quick - ly the band played a waltz that was place _____ Think of five hun - dred meld or a sweet An - na cresc.

grand, A waltz that made sweet Len - a roar.
Held, While I kiss the hole in your face'

Chorus.

"Her - man let's dance to the tune of that beau - ti - ful waltz, Now lis - ten you

Ger-man, I'm talk-ing to you, I'll do some-thing dear you don't want me to do, so come on ————— take a chance ————— — and I'll know that your love is n't false. ————— A feel - ing that's heal - ing, comes steal - ing while spiel - ing that beau - ti - ful, beau - ti - ful waltz'' ————— waltz'' —————