Sing the Chorus

3.

Roll 'em girls, Roll 'em, go ahead and roll 'em,
In the Winter, Summer, Spring or Fall,
Roll 'em girls, Roll 'em, everybody roll 'em,
Anywhere, or time or place at all,
Young girls, old girls, sweethearts, wives and mothers;
Young maids, old maids, even our grandmothers;
Roll 'em high, Roll 'em low,
Show your Independence,
So roll 'em girlies, roll 'em, roll your own.

4.

Roll 'em girls, Roll 'em, go ahead and roll 'em,
Roll 'em anywhere, it's up to you,
Roll 'em girls, Roll 'em, everybody roll 'em,
Don't those wild collegiates roll 'em too?
Those collegiates dress in crazy fashion,
Now to show their ankles is their passion;
They don't care, they all wear,
Cretonne shirts and neckties,
So roll 'em girlies, roll 'em, roll your own.

5.

Roll 'em girls, Roll 'em, go ahead and roll 'em,
Roll 'em where you think they'll look the best,
Roll 'em girls, Roll 'em, everybody roll 'em,
Roll 'em North and South, and East and West,
Now-a-days you girlies have your freedom,
Don't wear things if you don't think you need 'em
High or low, let 'em go,
'Round your knees or ankles,
Just roll 'em girls, roll 'em, roll your own.

Roll 'em girls, Roll 'em, go ahead and roll 'em,
Roll 'em if it rains or if it snows,
Roll 'em girls, Roll 'em, everybody roll 'em,
Though you show your "Dees" and "Dems" and "Does",
Roll your own and make some fellow love you,
Then I know as sure as stars above you,
Pretty soon, honeymoon,
Then a baby carriage,
Then you'll roll 'em girls, you'll roll your own.

7.

Roll 'em girls, Roll 'em, go ahead and roll 'em,
Or you're just a lot of apple sauce,
Roll 'em girls, Roll 'em, everybody roll 'em,
Don't the Prince of Wales roll of his horse,
Roll your wrinkles if you don't look sweetly,
Even Dempsey rolled his nose completely,
Bank your dough down below,
It will draw more intrest,
So roll 'em girlies, roll 'em, roll your own.
