 to The gold - en age of youth.

REFRAIN

Slowly and with much expression

When the tree of love be - gins to bear its leaves, Then the branches of the heart will sway, Young af - fec - tion comes to life and breathes,

In a ver-y sweet and lov-ing way, As the weep-ing wil-lows bend be fore the breeze, So the heart in sight of love gives way, While the blos-soms on the or-ange trees,

Bloom in - to a wed - ding day, a wed - ding day.

NO high class song of late years has attracted the attention of artists, musical critics, the profession and the public generally, as "If Tears Were Pearls," is doing.

The relation of this exquisite creation to sentimental songs is equivalent to the position occupied by the "The Rosary" in religious songs. "If Tears Were Pearls" has been generally pronounced a master-piece of sublime thought and superb melody. Special attention is directed to the fact that the words have been translated into German.

IF your dealer cannot supply you with this song, we will on receipt of 25 cts. send you a copy post-paid, to any part of the world.

To Caddie. If Tears Were Pearls.

Poem by ARTHUR J. LAMB.
German Translation by EUGENE PLATENCOV.
Music by ALBERT VON TILZER.

Andante espressivo. With tenderness

If tears were pearls, then I would weave a chain of pearls for thee. And not a neck-lace ev-er wch. would half as love-ly be. Such pearls I'd weave, as ne'er were found, be-
