Miss Des - de - mone, — Sat all a - Miss Des - de - mone, — So blue had lone, — Down at her home, all the day she kept sing - ing the blues; Poor Miss grown, — She did - n't care, if she lived, did - n't care if she died; Poor Miss

Des - de - mone. — Dad - dies she could get, but they'd Des - de - mone. — Just to get a beau, she was leave her cry - in', To catch 'em in her net, she was al - ways try - in'; al - ways schem - in', But when they'd an - swer "no", there'd be tears and scream - in'.

When they would leave her, How it would grieve her, She'd sad-ly moan:—
When jew'ls and dress-es, Brought no suc-cess-es, Once more she'd moan:—

Chorus

"I've got those turt-le-dov-in; those warm-as-ov-en, but can't-get-lov-in' blues,
"I've got those turt-le-dov-in; those warm-as-ov-en, but can't-get-lov-in' blues,

Seems each man I love don't care for me; Why must it Some-how to the boys I don't ap-peal; How bad I be? Just when I love one and think he is mine, Some oth-er feel. If I were crippled or had a glass eye, I'd un-der-fish takes the bait off my line. When it comes to looks and style, I stand why they all-pass me by. If some one-don't fond-ly me, I'll know, I've got 'em beat a mile. I've got those 'try - to - please-'em; but throw, my-self in - to the sea. I've got those real-heart - ach - y, those for no rea - son I can't get squeez-in' blues, — Ev - ry beau I al - ways fake me, and then they shake me blues, — My good na - ture al - ways seem to lose; — So what's the use? — They think just as much of poor they love to a - buse, — With some ex - cuse. — I'd love a rag - doll if I me, — As a yal - ler dog thinks of a flea, — I've got those warm - as - ov - en, but could, — 'Cause I'm not made of mar - ble or wood, — I've got those warm - as - ov - en, but cant - get - lov - in' blues? — "I've got those
